The (not so) small print...

The only limit to this competition is that of the page itself – you can write in any genre or style you like, the judges will simply be looking for the page that inspires them the most.

The only rule is that each entry must be contained on one A4 side of paper.

This year, under 18's entries are asked to respond to the stimuli 'Where do we go from here'.

Entry Details

The entry fee for the competition is £10 (3 entries) or £5 (1 entry) for adults, FREE for Under 18's.
